Reciprocal Club Arrangements Between Club Lusitano and Club de Recreio

Background

1. In March 2013, the Presidents of both Club Lusitano (“CL”) and Club de Recreio (“CdR”) entered into a reciprocal club arrangement that gave their respective members reciprocal signing rights, thereby this arrangement benefitting both Clubs.

Terms and Conditions

General (Applicable to both clubs)

2. Telephone bookings may be made by members directly with the host club up to and inclusive of the day of visit. Telephone bookings must be made during the stipulated booking hours (i.e. office hours) but at least 30 minutes in advance of arrival. However, please be reminded that acceptance of the booking will be subject to the discretion of the host club and also subject to availability; bookings with less notice will not guarantee a table reservation.

3. Walk-ins (i.e. without prior reservations made) to either club will not be permitted.
4. Membership cards shall be produced (a) upon arrival at the host club, (b) upon settling their bills, or (c) upon demand by staff of the host Club at any time whilst on the host club's premises.
5. Members may book function rooms for private events in the host Club subject to availability of room (additional charges may apply).
6. Members from each Club may be invited on occasion to take part in selected events such as talks, seminars and social events hosted by the other club.
7. Each member from each Club is permitted to visit the other club up to three times per calendar month. The host Club may exercise discretion to accept bookings beyond this quota on any respective day subject to availability
8. A maximum of two dining tables will be available to members of the other Club per day. The host Club may exercise discretion to accept bookings beyond this quota on any respective day subject to availability.
9. There is no limitation on the number of guests each Club member may bring to the host club for dining, although the acceptance of the booking is subject to availability and the discretion of the host club.
10. 'No Show' fees (i.e. no notification of cancellation) of HK$150 may be imposed by the host Club. 'No Show' fees shall be charged to the member's account held with his own club.
11. A surcharge of 15% shall be incurred on the total bill incurred by the visiting member. The surcharge is not applicable to sporting and car park fees.
12. Each reciprocal member shall abide by the Bye-Laws of the host Club as well as the Terms and Conditions outlined in this Notice. Each Club reserves the right to refuse any future booking privileges should the member or any guests breach the terms and conditions set out in this arrangement.
13. The General Committees of CL and CdR each have the right and discretion to amend or withdraw the respective privileges as and when so determined.
